Game of Hard Hitting. The woes of the New York Nationals in the West were added to yesterday when they were smothered by the Cincinnatis, who gave them the worst beating they have experienced this year. The best the New Yorks can do now on this trip is to break even, having won five games and lest eight, with three more to play. The Brookeight, with three more to play. The Brook-lyns kept up their pathetic showing, losing to the Pittsburgs: St. Louis disposed of Boston, and the Philadelphias were besten in Chicago. The Quakers dropped from third place to fifth, Cincinnat! taking third place and Chicago fourth. This leaves only one Eastern team in the first division, the same state of affairs existing in the American League. These are trying days for Greater League. These are trying days for Greater New York teams and for the Easterners generally. The results:

Hobens and Murray Olyphant were 9 up for the thirty-six holes. There are thirty-six holes more to be played at Baltusrol. The pace set by Hobens made his ball the factor on all but three of the holes. Olyphant won the fourteenth and halved the seventeenth in the morning, besides halving the second in the afternoon, doing 81 and 83 Low, who played the Englewood links for the first time, made the good score of 80, 77-157, while Reinhart did 80, 81-181. The previous record at Englewood had been 73, by Fred Pye, now the Sound Beach professional, but the course is now somewhat longer, being stretched from 6.240 to 6.300 vards. Hobens's card was a wonderful performance and very consistent golfing. He drove a tremendously long ball and balanced the tee shots by a beautiful short game. The record

THE SUZANNE WINS. Therese Second in Heligoland Race Atlantic Beats Valhalla.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
LONDON, June 18—The yacht race from Dover to Helizoland for the cup offered by the German Emperor, which was started on Saturday, was finished to-day. The schooner Suzanne, owned by O. Huldschinsky, crossed the line first. Her time was 40 hours 42 minutes 40 seconds. Felix Simon's yawl Thérèse was second. Next across the line were the Navahoe and the Sunshine. The race of auxiliary yachts for the specia cup offered by the Kaiser, in which only the Atlantic and the Valhalla started, was won by the Atlantic.

The Heligoland cup race is an annual affair. It is a handicap race and the German Emperor offered prizes in order to induce British yachtsmen to go to the Kiel races. This year in addition to the race for sailing craft he offered a cup for auxiliaries, but in this race the Atlantic and the Valhalla were the only starters, and under the weather conditions that prevailed the Valhalla was no match for the winner of the ocean race.

There were thirteen starters in the regular race. The American boats were Edward R Coleman's Hildegarde, George Lauder, Jr.'s Endymion, Henry S. Redmond's Ailsa, Dr.

L. A. Stimson's Fleur de Lya. The German boats were George W. Watjen's Navahoe, Max Gulllaume's Clara, O. Huldschinsky's Suzanne, and Felix Simon's Thèrese. The Navahoe is an American built boat but is now owned in Germany. The Suzanne, the winner, was built last season by Fife and is a very fast schooner. The British boats that started were Sir M. Fitzgerald's Satanita, Col. T. A. W. Kennedy's Lethe, H. K. Bellow's Moonstone, L. H. Solomon's Sunshine and Admiral Sir J. K. E. Baird's Formosa.

The start was made on Saturday in rain and fog and for hours afterward the boats drifted about, many of them having to anchor. The distance of the race is about 350 miles. The yachts will now go to Kiel and the German Emperor will present the prizes to the winners in the ocean race.
